TWO MEN AND A TRUCK Celebrates 30th Anniversary

TWO MEN AND A TRUCK celebrated 30 years of business in 2015. The family-owned business has 2,100 trucks, 9,000 employees and 5.5 million completed moves. The company has travelled a long way from the first pickup truck that John and Brig Sorber drove when their mother Mary Ellen Sheets started this Lansing, MI small business in 1985.

With operations in Canada, the United Kingdom and Ireland, TWO MEN AND A TRUCK is the largest moving franchise company in North America.

President of TWO MEN AND A TRUCK Canada John Prittie says the success of the company stems "from the attentive customer service techniques the Sorber brothers instilled in all franchisees and employees. TWO MEN AND A TRUCK's core belief is in treating each customer like their grandma - with dignity and respect. And, we have a Canadian moving industry first, a Consumers' Bill of Rights, which further proves our commitment to providing top-notch service."
